

Permission Form for Academic Work Dissemination on Websites

I Position

Faculty/College/Center.....

Phone Number E-mail

would like to submit my academic work(s) and grant my permission to disseminate

the full text, abstract, via the websites of the Library and Information Center and the Wisdom Repository of National Institute of Development Administration, as listed hereof:

1)

.....

.....

2)

.....

.....

3)

.....

.....

4)

.....

.....

Herewith:

The submitted academic work in the digital file format as listed in Item

The author verifies that the thesis content intended to be disseminated conforms to the following content characteristics.

- The content must not violate ethical principles such as ethics and professional code of conduct, academic ethics, and human research ethics, etc.

- The content must respect the principles of human rights and Personal Data Protection Act, B.E. 2562.

- The content must not violate others' intellectual property, patent, and copyright.

- The content must not be of any nature of provocation, instigation, incitement, attack, or false information or not impact security and order of the nation and other agencies.

In the event of any violation found later, the Library and Information Center and the Wisdom Repository of National Institute of Development Administration reserves the rights to suspend the service and immediately withdraw the digital file(s) and the bibliography item(s) from the provided service.

I am the owner who holds the full rights to this submitted academic work and can disseminate the work without a breach of the funding contract or other contracts. In addition, in case there are many academic work creators, I have requested for and have already been granted the permission from other co-owners to disseminate this academic work.

In addition, I hereby grant the right to the Library and Information Center and the Wisdom Repository of National Institute of Development Administration to disseminate my academic work in digital formats with the full metadata and abstract, via online channels on the websites of Library and Information Center and Wisdom Repository. I also permit other persons to download my work to use it for teaching, learning and research, and the source of work must be cited, with no duplication in any case. Additionally, I do not permit the use of information resources in Wisdom Repository for commercial purposes. I also permit relevant staffs to convert the submitted file into a digital format according to Wisdom Repository's standards and permit them to duplicate the file purposefully for information resources preservation and appropriation for uses and dissemination, without causing changes or distortion of the content. I, furthermore, permit the Library and Information Center and the Wisdom Repository of National Institute of Development Administration to duplicate some of the content for publicizing the work whereas I shall not claim any recompense or compensation and shall not pursue any lawsuits or complaints in relevance to such action of the Library and Information Center and the Wisdom Repository or National Institute of Development Administration.

The Library and Information Center and the Wisdom Repository of National Institute of Development Administration will act in accordance with the permitted rights granted by the owner of work as indicated above only.

Please select one of the following embargo periods to start dissemination of the academic work:

- Immediately effective
- In 6 months after signing this Document
- In 1 year after signing this Document
- In 2 years after signing this Document

Signature Licensor
(.....)
Date/...../.....

Signature Advisor
(.....)